

Junior Achievement of the Heartland Welcomes Development Directors

Moline, IL – Junior Achievement of the Heartland welcomes Rich Fontenoy and Stephanie Ludovissy to its Development team.

Rich Fontenoy brings 21 years of sales experience in the Quad Cities. As Development Director, Fontenoy will lead fundraising and business development efforts in the Quad Cities, Dewitt, and Durant.

Stephanie Ludovissy is a native of Dubuque with 10 years of experience in community relations in the Tri-State Area. As Development Director, Ludovissy will be responsible for fundraising in Allamakee County (IA), Clayton County (IA), Dubuque County (IA), Jackson County (IA), Jo Daviess County (IL), and Grant County (WI).

“As JA of the Heartland grows to serve more students, we are excited to have Rich and Stephanie join our team to help us build business relationships within the areas we operate,” said Barbara VenHorst, President, JA of the Heartland. “Their passion for JA’s mission and their overall skill sets make them great additions to our organization.”

Rich Fontenoy
Development Director

Stephanie Ludovissy
Development Director

About Junior Achievement (JA) Junior Achievement is the world's largest organization dedicated to giving young people the knowledge and skills they need to own their economic success, plan for their future, and make smart academic and fiscal choices. JA programs are delivered by corporate and community volunteers, and provide relevant, hands-on experiences that give students from kindergarten through high school knowledge and skills in financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship. Today, JA reaches four million students per year in 115 markets across the United States, with an additional six million students served by operations in 119 other countries worldwide. Visit www.ja.org for more information.

Locally, Junior Achievement of the Heartland serves 24 counties in eastern Iowa, western Illinois and Grant County in Wisconsin. More than 55,000 kindergarten through high school students benefit from JA programs each year. For more information visit www.jaheartland.org.