

JA It's My Job (Soft Skills) Program Overview

JA It's My Job (Soft Skills) will help students understand the value of professional communication and soft skills, making them more employable to future employers across multiple career clusters. Lessons will focus on social and soft skill competencies relating real-life experiences to job skills and preparing students for their future careers. Topics include communication and presentation skills, manners, listening skills, and cell phone etiquette. Recommended for high school but may be adapted for middle school. Activities and implementation design will vary based on grade level.

Highlights

- Structured educator and volunteer guides and student guides available for download
- Six-session program:
 - Minimum three sessions for 3 Instructional Contact Hours (ICH) (all volunteer-led)
 - Maximum six sessions for 6 ICH (all volunteer-led)
- Content is modular within each session. Select the activities that work best for the group of students receiving the program.

This program is part of the JA Work and Career Readiness Pathway and can be placed in grades 9–12. The program may receive 3 to 6 or more ICH based on delivery of the optional content; volunteers are required and the educator supports the volunteer during session delivery.
